^ Confession of Faith	Apostles' Creed
^ Responsive Reading	No. 67 (Philippians 4) Of old you laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the work of your hands. They will perish, but you will remain; They will all wear out like a garment. You will change them like a robe, and they will pass away, But you are the same, and your years have no end. "Remember not the former things, nor consider the things of old. Behold, I am doing a new thing; now it springs forth, To put off your old self, which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, And to be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness. Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: Just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. Amen.
